

BRITTANY AMARA

AUTHOR | ACTRESS | MODEL

Brittany A. Marasciulo (or Brittany Amara) is an author, actress and model with a passion for stories that venture beyond the reaches of space and time. When she isn't writing about aliens, she's writing about other dimensions, rifts in reality and all things curious and chaotic. Her favorite genres to read and write in include science fiction, fantasy, action and horror. Like a true Gemini, she has trouble sticking to just one.

Brittany's first novel, The Bleeding Woods (47 North Publishing), debuts October 14th of 2025. Her screenwriting has been recognized by ScreenCraft, Coverfly's Red List, The New York International Screenplay Awards, The Big Apple Film Festival, and The New York Shorts International Film Festival. She has a Bachelors in Digital Media Production from SUNY New Paltz and is currently working towards a Masters in Creative Writing at Russell Group Member Queen's University Belfast.
